

History

Parent Workshop

History at North

At North, children are taught broad and ambitious history curriculum, rich in skills and knowledge, which immerses students in a range of cultures and promotes an enquiring and critical outlook on the world.

History at North - Knowledge Organisers

☰ Venus Class 2022-23

Stream

Classwork

People

Grades

Knowledge Organisers and Language Links fo... ⋮

All topics

North Science Enric...

Spanish

Homework

Computing

Maths

Knowledge Organis...

SCIENCE

SUMMER TASK

Kevin Burke posted a new material: Knowledge Organisers and Language Links for Learning ⋮

Posted Sep 4, 2022 (Edited 11:12 AM)

Living Things and Their H...
Google Docs

LLL Autumn Term
Google Slides

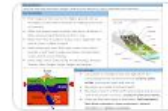

Anglo Saxons KO
Google Docs

Animals including Humans
Google Docs

LLL Spring Term
Google Slides

Rivers, Mountains and C...
Google Docs

What is the aim of our History curriculum?

- Understand the chronology of historical events covered in British history and how they compare and link to world history
- Study issues at a local, national and international level in Ancient, Medieval, Early Modern and Modern time periods
- Understand Britain's influence on the wider world
- Study the history and influence of different people and places across time
- Be exposed to a high level of historical and conceptual vocabulary
- Learn to interpret a broad range of sources including visual sources and propaganda
- Be exposed to different people's perspectives on issues and events

How can you help?

Useful Resources/Websites